

Member of the Tennessee High School Press Association

School Clean Up Day

The PawPrint is a publication of the McNairy Central High School Journalism Department. The views and opinions expressed here are not necessarily those of the administration, faculty or staff.

EDITOR Lisa Forsythe

UPCOMING EVENTS

WED Oct. 25

•Seniors Order Invitations during lunch

FRI Oct. 27

•SPIRIT DAY: Camo Day
•FB Westview (A)

FRI Oct. 28

•ACT 8:00 - 12:00

TUE Oct. 31

•2:00 NTHS Induction @ the Ag Building

SAT Nov. 4

•Band Competition - State

FRI Nov. 10

•SR Superlatives Field Trip to Opryland

THU Nov. 16

•College Road Trip West
•6:00 BB Milan A

MON Nov. 20

•School dismissed for Thanksgiving

Jamie King touches up a blemish on the wall with paint.

Some 50 students and faculty members spent their Saturday morning in cleaning up around the school. Organized by senior Jamie King (above), the workers spent four hours scrubbing windows, walls, and floors. Others painted, trimmed grass, and cleaned out cabinets. Visitors should notice a difference when they walk in the building.

Mrs. Johnson and Madison Bond clean the trophy case outside the front office.

Mrs Lancaster cleans the EPod kitchen.

Mrs. Hall scrubs on windows at Entrance 3.

Wesley Ferguson attacks the windows above the DPod entrance.

$80 deposit required

*The MCHS Class of 2018
will order invitations,
caps and gowns
and graduation accessories
during lunch Oct. 25*