The annual Miss MCHS Queen and Princess Pageants were held on February 7 in the Little Theater. Despite the bad weather and the dismissal of school due to sickness, the crowd came out to see 15 young ladies glide across the stage for the judges' consideration.

Host and Hostess for the evening were Mr. MCHS, Lucas Hively, and FBLA President Anna Kate Crenshaw. Entertainment for the evening was provided by former MCHS Queen Katie Allen, who displayed her painting talent during the first intermission, and by junior Abigail Ashe, who performed a solo during the second intermission.

The Princess division is for girls in grades 9 and 10. The Queen division is for girls in grades 11 and 12. The pageant is coordinated by the Future Business Leaders of America as a fundraiser for their state competition. Lisa Chandler is the sponsor.

2018 Princess Mekylland Williams crowned for both divisions.
