“The Bee’s Knees” in West TN Art Exhibition

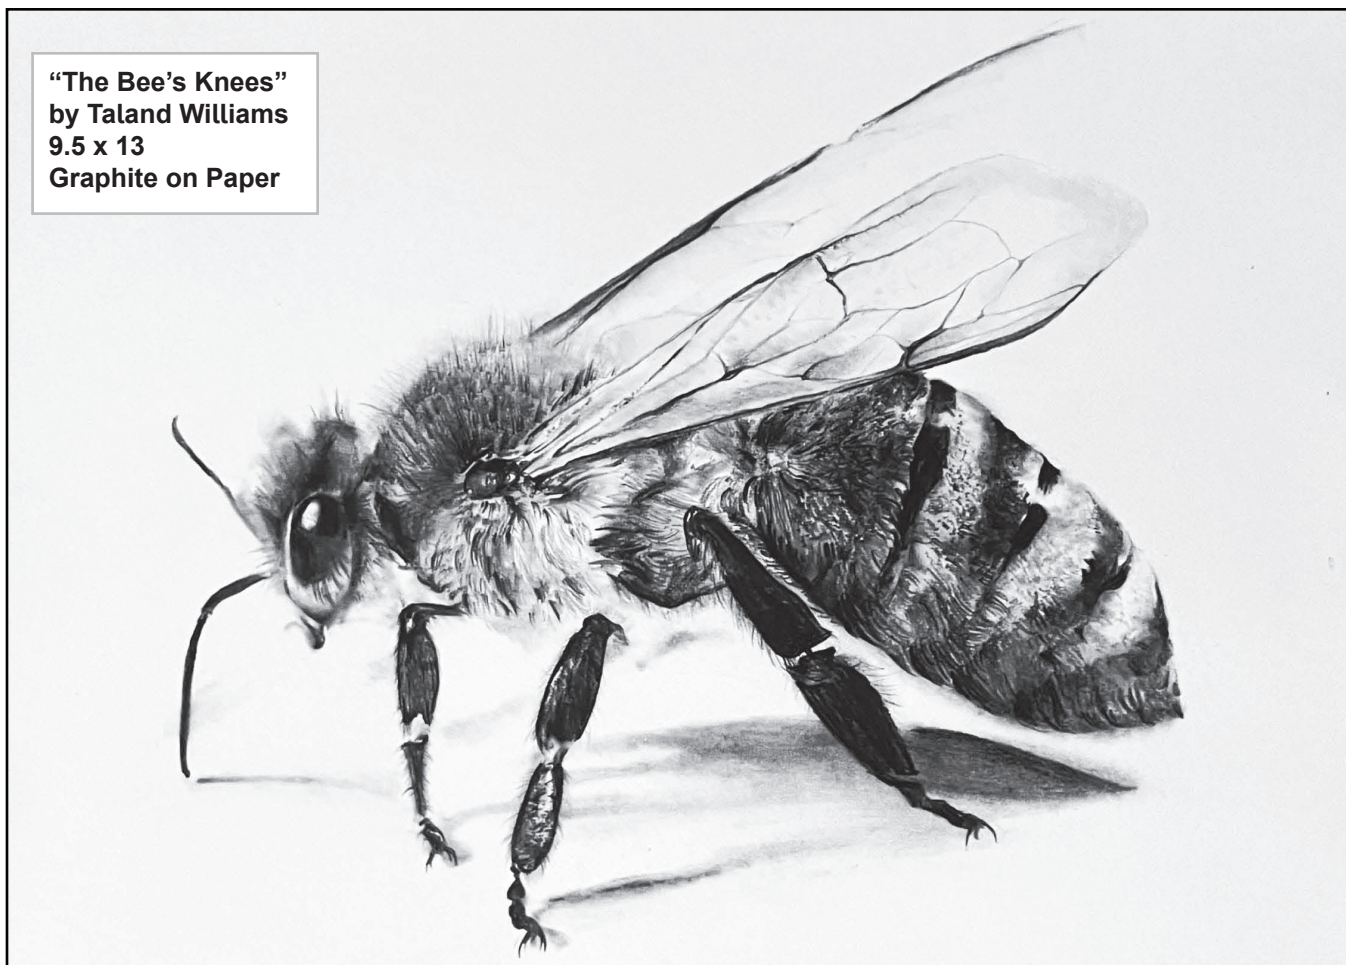

The 16th annual West Tennessee Regional Student Art Exhibition is a juried art exhibition that is open to middle and high school students in public, private, or home school programs in West Tennessee.

Students submit their art pieces virtually for a chance to be selected to exhibit their work in person.

MCHS senior Taland Williams’ art was selected and will be displayed at the West Tennessee Regional Art Center in Humboldt, TN through February 21st.

“I chose the bee because Mrs. (Melanie) Miller wanted me to do a subject with hair. I already do portraits, so I thought a bee would be fun,” said Williams.

After graduation, Williams plans to attend the Nossi College of Art and Design in Nashville. Nossi offers degrees in a variety of design fields, from photography to digital and print graphic design, as well as an associates degree in culinary arts.

One of her future goals is to become a tattoo artist, using the income to fund her education while growing her portfolio of work.
